FIERCE THE FEELING

Which Ranks in the Heart of Democratic Factions.

PRETTY NICE FOR EDITOR POTTS

A Lisbon Dispatch Says He is the Only Journalistic Representative Possessing Ability or Influence—The War is on, and Hot are the Fires.

That harmony which was so bombastically paraded as having fallen upon the local Democratic convention, and without opposition from any source taken up the scepter and ruled with a firm yet pleasing hand, seems to have been a delusion and a snare in which there is no faith, nay not even to the amount of a grain of mustard seed infinitesimal as it may be.

Last year, when the faithful gathered at the call of a preacher and a "leader," they did not like Colonel Brice. Neither did they have any use for the congressman whom they loved the year before. Ikirt was disposed of without a word. Not a Democrat of the few gathered at the Grand Opera House on Aug. 29 in county convention had one word to say in approval or condemnation. They condemned him, certainly, but they were so disgusted that they said nothing. Not so with Brice. He was the object of attack, and Potts was in command of the surging host as they beat against the bulwark of the senator's political record. As he rose before that convention, resolutions in hand, he looked like an avenging Nemesis who had ferociously followed his prey until glorious victory was perched upon his streaming banner. The delegates were still, not a soul moved, and the lofty arch of that great auditorium rang with the clear tones of the Lisbon editor as he spoke for the Democrats of the county, and beheld with them and a "sense of shame and humiliation, the conduct of Senator Brice and others in their efforts to defeat the will of the Democratic party in the senate," and he regretted, along with the other Democrats, "that their votes, aided by Republican senators, caused some of the objectionable features of the McKinley bill to be left on the statute books." Then he majestically, with his Democratic brethren in the county, branded "these conservative senators as traitors to the cause of Democracy and in league with unlawful trusts and combinations."

It was an inspiring scene and those who saw it will not regret it. The editorial coat tails fairly waved with enthusiasm, and a few of the untutored gave vent to their pent up feelings in slight applause. That was all. No one objected, and the resolution passed. That was the position of the county Democracy a year ago. But there have been changes. A few of those delegates have bowed the knee to the golden influence of Mr. Brice, and are now praising him as fervently as a year ago they covered him with curses. He wants their feeble influence in the state convention, and, like the crafty schemer he is, has chosen the faction in power to do his work. All the evil of last year is forgotten and forgiven. Brice wants votes, and Brice is willing to do almost anything to get them. Potts and his crowd could not be induced to bend. They were not a burning success at bending the knee, and the colonel will not have their help. And the fight is on. From the Pennsylvania line to Bavard, and from Mahoning to the river there is turmoil and dissension. The pot is boiling, and it is expected to surge and bubble until the convention is called at Wellsville on Aug. 14. A dispatch from Lisbon puts the situation in this way:

"Perhaps nowhere in the state is the factional feeling in the party more bitter than in Columbiana county, and the intensity of this feeling will continue to grow until it finds expression in the county convention, and then there will be trouble, and lots of it. As the party is in the minority by about 2,000 in the county, the self-sacrificing patriots have leisure to devote their entire attention to efforts to reform the state administration and save the nation. The contest will be upon the election of delegates to the state convention, the dividing line between the factions being the silver question primarily, and secondarily the leadership of Brice. The Lisbon Patriot, the leading Democratic paper in the county, and the only journalistic representative of the party possessing either ability or influence, is a strenuous advocate of the free coinage of silver and a bitter and virulent opponent of Senator Brice, denouncing him in unmeasured terms as a gold-inflated plutocrat and a traitor to the party he assumes to lead. The local machinery of the party, however, is in the hands of the Brice following, and they will make a desperate effort to do the bidding of their master. In brief words, the advocates of free silver have the support of the masses of the party, while the followers of Brice have the machine and the money—powerful factors in determining probable political developments. A bolt in the convention, resulting in two sets of delegates to Brice's tea party at Springfield, is looked upon as the probable result of the factional fight in this county."

That should be lively enough to suit the most ambitious Democrat of the lot, particularly when it is remembered that this dispatch comes from the home of Potts, and was probably influenced by some of his personal friends. Whether he has sufficient influence with the party to swing it against Brice remains to be seen, but how his friends can swallow their indignation at Ikirt a year ago, when they take the anti-Brice dose, is one of the mysteries of political warfare.

A Side Swipe.

Dispatches sent out from East Liverpool magnified the Democratic city caucus into a county convention, and it was represented that J. C. Deidrick had a battle with Congressman Ikirt over a silver resolution and that Deidrick won the fight. The truth about the caucus is there was no fight at all, no effort was made to adopt a gold standard resolution, and Doctor Ikirt was not present, and therefore did not introduce a silver resolution to be knocked out by Deidrick. It is likely that Deidrick sent out the dispatches himself.—Steubenville Gazette.

ONLY A WORD.

Doctor Lee Still Stands By the Christian Endeavor.

In speaking of the article contributed to the NEWS REVIEW of yesterday by "Presbyterian," Doctor Lee said: "Any reply is unnecessary, as Mr. Presbyterian has failed to furnish the facts requested and has withdrawn from the defense of his cause as Doctor McKibben and others whom he names did long ago, and most of all he fails to honor his cause with his own name."

"One thing however is worthy of note. He says if I had had more facts I would not have stated that the general assembly had indorsed the Christian Endeavor as a distinctive movement. I could not furnish all the facts then, as I can not give the one-fourth of them now. I will now give the proof of what I said before, and which I supposed Mr. Presbyterian would find in his 'minutes of the assembly.'"

"Note that the expression, 'young people's societies' is used by the assembly, simply because they wish to include with the Christian Endeavor the Westminster league. Minutes of the assembly, 1893, page 124: 'Such societies, like Sabbath schools, are a part of the church machinery, and their conduct should be left to the church. We have no denominational model to which our Sabbath schools must conform. So it should be with the Young People's society.'"

"Here the Christian Endeavor receives precisely the same endorsement as the Sabbath school. Substantially the same action was taken by the assembly of 1894, of which I was a member. (Minutes, 1894, page 89.)"

"Last the above should be considered too indefinite, note the following resolution adopted by the assembly of 1893: (minutes of the assembly 1893, page 127.) 'The assembly commends the spirit and purpose manifested in the organization of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, Westminster League, and other similar organizations among the youth of the church, and urges all our ministers and elders to be watchful and diligent in furthering, directing and using this important agency for the advancement of the work of the Master committed to our hands.' Here the Christian Endeavor received unqualified indorsement with the Westminster league. Furthermore this assembly of 1893 says that, as we have no denominational model for the Sabbath school, so we have none for the young people's societies, which gives the preference to the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. I have examined the minutes of the assembly carefully and failed to find where the assembly in a single instance has declined to indorse the Christian Endeavor."

Preparing For the Picnic.

The Township Line club held another meeting last night and completed the arrangements for their picnic on Aug. 14. There was a large attendance, and the enthusiasm developed promises a great crowd for the event of the year for Columbiana county farmers.

IS HE FULL OF TACKS

Or Does the Correspondent Know Something New?

ONE MORE ELECTRIC LINE

This Time It Will Be Constructed to Columbiana, and the Vivid Reporter Thinks It Will In Time Be Extended to East Liverpool.

The most wild eyed of wild eyed electric railroad projectors will smile away down in their hearts when they read the following special from Columbiana:

"The project of a steam railway across Columbiana and Mahoning counties, from north to south, with terminal at Youngstown and East Liverpool, will now be permanently abandoned, as a result of the action of the Youngstown Park and Falls Electric Railway Company. This company has just let the contract for the construction of an electric street railway, twelve miles in length, from Youngstown to North Lima, four miles north of this city. The contract was awarded to Contractor Simon Harrold, of Beaver Falls, Pa., and the grading is commenced. It is understood that the line will be extended to Columbiana to connect with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway as soon as right of way may be granted by the Columbiana county commissioners. It will then, no doubt, be extended on through to the Ohio river, at East Liverpool, 21 miles further, at no distant day."

If there be any truth in the story it is something new. The line projected from this city to Lisbon has no connection with any other line, and if both projects are carried out there will be competing roads across the county. The story printed above is probably a hoax.

DICK ALBRIGHT HOME.

He Has Been East For the Salvation Army.

Dick Albright, the indefatigable worker of the Salvation army, who is now doing yeoman service in the slums of Cleveland, but was until a few months ago the well known officer of the law, will be in town this evening. He will lead the meeting at the barracks this evening, and a large crowd is expected to hear him.

The church where Mr. Albright has charge was the birthplace of the Epworth League, and much interest is shown in the congregation for that reason. It is the largest army assemblage in Ohio, and he is proud of the distinction. He has been in the East for several weeks doing the work of Captain Parker, well known here, and at present recovering from a long illness.

AN OLD REWARD.

It Still Stands Although Offered 28 Years Ago.

In a certain station on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh hangs an old frame and in it a card offering a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who placed obstructions upon the track at East Liverpool on March 26, April 5 and 24, 1867. The card is signed by J. M. McCullough as president of the company, and is dated at Cleveland, June 1, of the same year. The reward still stands, not only for that offense but for any other of a similar nature.

A HARD FALL.

John McKinney Ran Over a Barking Dog.

John McKinney was riding on Second street last night when a dog ran toward him and began barking. The wheelman attempted to get out of his way, but the dog seemed bent on suicide, and there was a collision. McKinney went down with a crash, but he was riding at such a speed that his wheel went sliding along the pavement, and so did he. His side and arm was deprived of a goodly quantity of cuticle, and he was unable to stand when he arose. The dog was uninjured.

A PAIR OF TOUGHS

Fought Between This City and Walker's Last Night.

A report went the rounds this morning that two local characters whose reputation is none of the best with the police quarrelled on a street car last night, and got off to settle their difficulties at a point below the Jethro trestle. The fight did not last long for one slugger whipped his man in a very few minutes closing his optic and cutting his lip.

Paid a Fine.

Frank Feurescien called on Mayor Gilbert last night after thinking carefully over that little matter of standing trial on the charge of being disorderly, and paid a fine of $6.00.

The jail is empty today, and there are no new cases on the docket. All is still about city hall, and the officials look lazily out of the window while they harken to the patter of fly feet on the glass. Clerk Hanley dropped a pin today, and Mayor Gilbert jumped as though he had been shot. It is said the noise could have been heard all over the building so still was the place.

SMALL BOYS FALL.

They Must Pay the Penalty of Jumping Street Cars.

The small boy who jumps street cars must pay the penalty, and he does it a dozen times a day by several hard knocks. Motormen have noticed that the new cars throw more boys because of the high steps, and one got a hard fall on Franklin street last night. Another boy was thrown at the Second street curve this morning, and an East End youth wears a few bumps as a reminder of a fall received a few days ago. Motormen still adhere to the statement that only a severe accident will stop the practice.

A SERIES OF SHOTS

Were Fired on the West Virginia Shore Last Night.

Parties on the river front last night were surprised to hear a series of shots on the other side, fully a dozen being fired before silence again reigned on the river. The shots all came from a point opposite Market street, and there seems to be a mystery connected with the firing. No one knows anything about the happening, and a reporter interviewed many people living near the river today without obtaining any more information than that the shots had been fired.

GOING TO SALEM.

Charley Murphy Will Enter the Business World.

Charley Murphy, the well known clothing man attached to the store of Geo. C. Murphy for several years, is buying goods, and will in September open a store of his own in Salem. He is at present in the east buying goods, and will show the Salem people a stock that will make them feel like buying. Mr. Murphy is a young man of integrity and business qualifications, and none of his many friends doubt for an instant that he will fall in providing a complete success.

A SPECIMEN.

A Spot of Dirt Has Been on the Street Since Monday.

"The efficacy of the present system of street cleaning can be seen by that mark better than anything I know," said a business man to a reporter this morning as they stood at the postoffice. "On Monday a wagon loaded with flint came out of Fourth street and turned into Washington. Some of the flint was falling on the street, and there it is still, a glaring evidence that the present system of street cleaning does not cover the ground."

KILLED THE CHARGE.

Squire Morley Had a Criminal Case That Was a Mistake.

Squire Morley had a neat bit of news yesterday, but kept it carefully concealed because he believed it would amount to nothing, and he was right. It was filed against a man for taking household goods from another house, and hauling them away. The origin of the litigation is shrouded in mystery, and the squire says nothing about it beyond a casual reference.

A Wrong Inference.

Squire Morley believes the inference is drawn from the article in the NEWS REVIEW Saturday that the body of the drowned man, Joseph Rohlan, was left by him on the beach after he had viewed it. This is not correct as he caused the body to be removed to the family residence and a post mortem was held there by Dr. McConnell. The squire thinks it would be inhuman to leave a body on the beach after it had been viewed according to law.

The Gas Exploded.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.

LORAIN, July 31.—Gas exploded in the new Johnson steel works this morning, and four men are badly hurt in consequence. A huge nail was driven by all the force of the explosion into the abdomen of one workman, and he will die.

Drill Tomorrow Night.

The members of Company E will meet at the rink tomorrow night for drill. Every member should make it a point to be present.

Going to Camp.

A number of ladies will call at the camp of the Trilby club on Beaver creek tomorrow.

LISBON'S BAD LIQUOR

Will Not Be Dispensed on the Sabbath Day.

ONE SALOON MAN PROSECUTED

More Will Find Themselves in the Same Box if They Break the Statute—Said to Be a Law and Order Movement, But No Man is Talking.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, July 31.—The tin plate mill caused a great change in Lisbon, and while the benefits are many there are some people who can see the cause of troubles in the big factory.

Lisbon has always been noted as a quiet town. Its people behaved themselves, and criminal prosecutions were few and far between, but that is changing now. New saloons have appeared, and at times there have been drunken orgies which scandalized the community, and set the people to wondering where it was all going to end, but the mark was reached today when a prosecution for selling liquor on Sunday was commenced. Matthew Reed was the defendant, and he was called to answer an information filed in probate court. He declared his innocence, and gave bond for $200 for his appearance tomorrow morning. It is quietly whispered around that there are others under suspicion, and the cases will not end with Reed if there are any more infractions of the law. Whether this movement is the outgrowth of a law and order society no one will tell should they be so fortunate as to know. No mistakes will be made by bringing cases under the village law, if there is one. The state law seems to answer every purpose.

Sued a Lawyer.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, July 31.—Allen Kilpatrick & Co., a wholesale grocery firm of Pittsburg, brought suit today against Conrad Hume, a local attorney, for $404.72, the amount of a bill of goods.

Two Licenses.

Special to NEWS REVIEW.
LISBON, July 31.—The marriage license business continues very good, and two more were added to the list for July this morning. The happy people are Harry Estill and Miss Minnie Keen, and John M. Debee and Miss Maggie Payton.

EPWORTH DAY.

A Great Crowd Took Part in the Exercises at Spring Grove.

Willard Morris lead the prayer meeting at the camp ground yesterday, and Reverend Robbins, of Martin's Ferry, preached at 10 o'clock. The Junior league had their session at 2 in the afternoon, and Reverend Heddlson, of Salineville, preached an excellent sermon at 3 o'clock. The rally was lead by President Al Ferran at 7, and Reverend Johnson closed the meeting day by a sermon at 8. Doctor Stewart, the presiding elder, was present, and stated that he had been preaching in this vicinity for 20 years, but never had he seen a greater or more enthusiastic crowd at a week-day service.

A MEMORY.

A Man Who Ran Barefoot Through the Street Comes Back.

Chief Gill was standing in the Diamond last night when a man passed who gave him a look he will not soon forget. The chief at once recognized him as a man who was at one time confined in jail here for cutting his wife, and one cold winter night, after he had been bound to the grand jury, he succeeded in getting away in his bare feet and without a coat. He walked to Rochester and then made his way to New Castle where he was recaptured by the chief and afterward taken to Lisbon jail. Subsequently he got a term in the penitentiary, and yesterday he came back.

HE PAID A DOLLAR.

And the Gypsy Told Him He Would Die in a Month.

A well known young man of the city accompanied by his best girl, she who will soon be the partner of his joys and sorrows, went to one of the gypsy camps near the city last month, and had his fortune told. It cost him a dollar, and he got enough information to keep him thinking until today when the time ends. The gipsie told him he was doomed to death, and within a month from that time he would be dead. He confessed that he was badly scared, and did not breathe a sigh of relief until this morning when he awoke from a troubled sleep to find himself alive. The awful time ended last night.

If the crops grew like the national deficit, all the farmers in America would be rich this year.

If Andrew Jackson could hear some of the Democratic doctrine dispensed in this county he would roll over in his cold, narrow tomb.

With Sherman, McKinley, Bushnell and Foraker on the same platform at Springfield the opening of the campaign will be a glorious success.

AND where is the Hon. Mr. Campbell in this little Democratic war? Can't he be induced to lend his aid in thrashing the irrepressible Potts?

THE host of the brewers amounts to nothing, unless President Cleveland has sold himself to them as completely as he did to Isadore Straus and the other crockery importers.

GENERAL WARNER, the Marietta advocate of free silver, threatens to take the stump in favor of Allen W. Thurman if that young man is nominated for governor. That should be enough to make the Democrats nominate some other willing patriot.

SENATOR BRICE is a fighter. Method and dignity are not matters of great import to him. He wants another term of office, and every scheme known to politics will be used to get it for him. They do say he has ordered his secretary to inflict a five column defense of his official acts upon the public, and if the secretary carries out the command Brice is politically dead—Ohio Democrats never did have use for a man with sound business views.

A CHATTERFEST.

In commenting on the Har-Harvey debate the Cincinnati Times-Star very properly says:

"The Har-Harvey discussion was a waste of words. So far as Harvey ventured to deal with the question of the effect of the 'crime of 1873,' the plain facts refute every statement made. This country has enjoyed its highest degree of prosperity since 1873, on the gold standard; and right in the teeth of the free silverites' contention that the low prices of the past two years were due to anti-silver legislation and that values would never rise until free coinage was resumed, prices have been rising and the country regaining the prosperity which prevailed until the Democracy came into power in 1893. The people have got away ahead of all the speculative agitators. The Har-Harvey chatterfest should have been out of date months before it actually began."

Away From Home.

Robert Walters, of East Liverpool, O., manager of the Ohio Valley Gas company, stopped off here a short time last evening enroute to Pittsburg, and reports his venerable father, Captain Isaac Walters, as enjoying better health than at any time during the present summer.—Brighton News.

MAYOR STRONG'S PLAN

Enforcing the Excise Law to Cause Its Repeal.

HE PRAISES SALOON KEEPERS.

Declares He Likes Them and Ninety Per Cent Are as Good as Other Citizens. Won't Vote For Any Opponent of Local Option at the Next Election.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Mayor Strong spoke very freely on the excise question when he was visited by a delegation of citizens bearing a petition that he call Commissioner Roosevelt off a bit from his enforcement of the Sunday closing law. The petition said the enforcement of the law was causing much drunkenness in tenement houses. To the delegation Mayor Strong said:

"I am sorry, but this will have to be buried. You know our administration was elected because Tammany had been lax in enforcing the laws, especially the excise law. In fact, the Lexow committee proceedings clearly proved that the excise law had been made, not for enforcement, but to bleed the saloon-keepers."

"In its strict enforcement we are working for the saloonkeepers' interest. The repeal of the law can be brought about only by enforcing it rigidly. Of course you know that I like the saloon-keepers. Ninety per cent of them are just as good men as any other citizens. They have just as many rights as others, and I am trying to get them their rights."

"But you can't ask me to wilfully break the law. What we want to get is local option, and I won't vote for any man this fall who does not come out in favor of it. Neither should you."

Reward Offered For Pierce's Body.

WHEELING, July 31.—The whereabouts of Len R. Pierce, the Parkersburg man who mysteriously disappeared over a week ago, is as much a mystery as ever. Pierce was known to have a large amount of money in his possession, and from circumstances surrounding the case it is now pretty generally believed he was spirited away, murdered and robbed and the body thrown in the river. This theory has been adopted by Mrs. Pierce, who has offered a reward for the recovery of her husband's body.

Harrison Climbs a Mountain.

OLD FORGE, N. Y., July 31.—General Harrison, Mrs. McKee, Dimmick, Master Ben and Miss Mary McKee and Secretary Tibbitt, together with Guide Sperry, walked to the top of Bald mountain and took lunch there. The mountain is 800 feet above the lakes. When not fishing, General Harrison spends his time in cruising about the lakes.

A Wealthy Farmer Suicides.

WHEELING, July 31.—William Shay, one of the wealthiest and most prominent farmers of Preston county, this state, has committed suicide by cutting his throat with a pocketknife. Shay was a man of fine intellect, but of late his mind has shown signs of giving way. He leaves a small family.

The Defender Gave It Up.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 31.—Vigilant beat the Defender today in a run of 40 miles from Eaton Point, on the Long Island shore, four miles from Huntington Harbor, to this point. The Defender gave up the race not far from this point, because her steering gear became deranged.

Turkey Accepts the Reform.

LONDON, July 31.—The Daily News publishes a dispatch from Berlin, which says that The Tagblatt has word from Constantinople that Turkey has accepted in their entirety the reforms which the powers have demanded in Armenia, after receiving a firm note from the Salisbury government.

Army Worms Doing Damage.

HENNESSY, O. T., July 31.—Army worms have made their appearance in some places in this vicinity and are doing great damage to alfalfa, kafir corn and some of the late corn, though most of it is beyond damage. Two days' hot winds have damaged late corn some.

Wanted in Illinois.

WHEELING, July 31.—William Blower, who is wanted at Decatur, Ill., for robbery and other crimes, has been arrested at Guyandotte, Va., while visiting his brother, who lives at that place.

Lilian Low Suicided.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The coroner's inquest in the case of Lilian Low, who was found dead in the woods near Washington Heights a week ago, resulted in a verdict of suicide.

Strikers Winning Their Fight.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The contractors are coming forward in such numbers to accede to the demands of the striking tailors that it appears probable that the strike will soon be ended.

A Woman Choked to Death.

CHOCOTAW CITY, I. T., July 31.—Mrs. J. F. Mitchell, living north of town, on her way home was murdered. The marks on her throat indicate that she was choked to death.

Judge Caton Dead.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Judge John D. Eaton, ex-justice of the Illinois supreme court, is dead, aged 84. He had been long ill, having suffered several strokes of paralysis.

Divorced in Oklahoma.

PERRY, O. T., July 31.—Mrs. Hattie M. Smith has secured a divorce from her husband, John E. Smith, a Brooklyn newspaper man, in the district court here.

Agreed to the Mora Claim.

MADRID, July 31.—The cabinet council has accepted the amount which America demands as payment for the Mora indemnity.

New York Republican Convention.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The Republican state central committee has called the state convention for Sept. 17, at Saratoga.

MAY BOLT THE AMALGAMATED.

Puddlers of the Sixth District Call a Convention to Consider the Matter.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—A call has been issued for a convention of all the puddlers in the Sixth district, to be held at Youngstown on Aug. 10, to consider a proposition to surrender the charters of their lodges in the Amalgamated association and formulate plans for a new organization. This action is the result of the discovery by the puddlers that the new scale of wages does not take effect on Aug. 1, as they had expected. According to one clause of the agreement between the ironworkers and the manufacturers, the shipments of bar iron from the mills during July and August are to be reported and the scale based upon those shipments is to take effect on or after Sept. 1. The puddlers claim they were ignorant of that agreement. The sentiment in favor of breaking away from the Amalgamated association is said to be growing, and it is believed the Youngstown convention will result in action of that kind.

IMPRISONED IN GERMANY.

A Cleveland Man Arrested For Not Serving in the Army.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—William Glaser, an engineer on the Valley railroad, has returned from Germany.

While in Reichsmann, Germany, he was arrested and thrown into prison for having failed to serve three years in the army, as required by the German law. The authorities informed him that for this offense he had been fined 300 marks and must serve 40 days in jail.

After much trouble Glaser succeeded in securing a hearing and was finally told that his sentence had been remitted, but that he must not leave Germany until his case had been investigated by a higher court. He, however, left the country at the first opportunity.

Fighting Over the Right to Fish.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—The war between the fish men and state officials is again on. A few days ago State Game and Fish Warden Buntin seized in the lake a large number of the gill nets of Crangle & Co. and Monson & Son on the ground that the law prescribing this month and August as the closed season for fishing was violated. The fish men claimed that they were operating off Erie, Pa., where Ohio officials have no jurisdiction.

McKinley Respects a Murderer.

COLUMBUS, July 31.—Governor McKinley resented Martin Adams, the Cincinnati murderer, who was to have been executed early this morning, until Sept. 27 next. Father O'Leary, spiritual adviser of the condemned man, made a vigorous appeal for an extension of life, claiming there was doubt as to the guilt of Adams poisoning John Ohmer.

A Lake Schooner Sunk.

LORAIN, O., July 31.—During a heavy gale the schooner Republic, in tow of the steam barge Swallow, coal laden, became waterlogged and sank in 40 feet of water, two miles off this port. The tug Cascade of this port succeeded in rescuing all of the crew of eight men, who were clinging to the rigging. The schooner and her cargo will probably be a total loss.

Rod Mill Strike Settled.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—The rod mill strike was settled by the agreement of the millowners and the officers of the National Association of Rod Millworkers to sign a scale of wages providing for an advance of 5 per cent, to go into effect tomorrow. There are only 22 rod mills in the country, and the same scale will be presented to the managers of all of them.

A Hermit Fatally Assaulted.

CHILLICOTHE, O., July 31.—James O'Brien, aged 60, a hermit living in the wilds of Mount Logan, has been found in an unconscious state near his yard. He regained consciousness long enough to accuse Jim Seamour of the assault, for robbery O'Brien is dying. Seamour escaped.

Sherman Agrees to Preside.

Abraham Stem, aged 19, of Orhiston, was lodged in jail at Athens on a charge of assault, his victim being Mary Hamblen, a 6-year-old girl of that place.

HOLMES' ACCOMPLICES

Three Helped Him Murder the Williams Sisters.

ONE MAN WANTS TO CONFESS.

He Asks For Guaranteed Immunity From Punishment—He Says Quinlan, Pictel and Holmes and Himself Committed the Deed—Other Developments.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Lawyer William Cappa, the Fort Worth attorney who is here at the instance of the heirs of Minnie Williams, states that he is prepared to prove the murder of Minnie and Annie Williams.

He insists that it was done by Holmes, Pictel, Quinlan and another man, whose identity he refuses to divulge. This man has been located by a detective, whom the heirs of the Williams' girls put upon the case eight months ago.

"He is ready to confess," said Mr. Cappa, "on one condition. That is, that the police guarantee him immunity from punishment. My detective says the man knows that the girls were killed in the Sixty-third street house and that he knows where they are buried."

In the course of the further excavation in the Holmes building, the police unearthed parts of two thigh bones, a piece of skull and four smaller bones. A packet of letters written to Holmes by a number of women were also found, which show that he was engaged in insurance schemes in 1886. A mysterious "Dora" is mentioned as the recipient of numerous small sums which are carefully recorded.

Peter Cigrand, father of Emeline Cigrand, who is said to have been murdered by Holmes, has arrived in Chicago with Philomena Cigrand, sister of the missing girl. With Dr. B. J. Cigrand, a relative, they went to police headquarters, where a secret conference was held with Chief Badenoch, and Inspector Fitzpatrick. They are here to try to ferret out the crime.

A Cleveland special says: Pat Quinlan, janitor of the building formerly occupied by H. H. Holmes in Chicago, formerly lived at Willoughby, a suburb of this city, and was a farmer. He came to this country when he was 21 years of age. During his stay at Willoughby, he saved his money and about 12 years ago went to Michigan, where he purchased a farm. He failed to get a clear title to the property, however, and after having paid for it, in full, lost it. He then went to Chicago in the fall of 1892, and made preparations to keep a boardinghouse during the World's fair. While living in Willoughby, Quinlan married Miss Ella Hitt, and her people still live there.

Charged With Shooting Five Men.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 31.—James Beard, colored, of Brunswick, Md., has been arrested near Charlestown, W. Va., and lodged in jail on the charge of shooting five colored men at a picnic at Island park, in the Patomac, in this county. Beard got into an altercation and fired his revolver in a crowd. No one was seriously hurt. He will probably be brought to Hagerstown on a requisition.

Crops Damaged by Floods.

NEVADA, Mo., July 31.—A heavy rain has been falling for the past 12 hours. The Marmaton river has overflowed its banks and hundreds of acres of growing crops are now under water. The creeks have covered a large acreage of corn. The loss will be heavy. A prominent local statistician says the large damage has been done in the shock over 25 per cent.

He Didn't Get His Dividends.

READING, Pa., July 31.—George F. Laner, president of the Lauer Brewing company, has made a general assignment for the benefit of creditors. His liabilities are said to be over $100,000, but the estimated assets exceed this figure. Mr. Laner declares that his dividends in the brewing company have been withheld from him.

Confessed to a Horrible Crime.

ST. LOUIS, July 31.—Emmet Davers, the colored man who was brought here several days ago from Hannibal, Mo., to escape lynching for the outrage and murder of Mrs. J. W. Cain, near Fulton, last Tuesday, has confessed. He said he out-got her and then cut her throat eight times.

Aristocratic Election Roter Fined.

LONDON, July 31.—Lord Wodehouse, eldest son of the Earl of Kimberley, who led the mob that attacked H. Rider Haggard, the novelist, and his party at Statham, while he was on his electioneering tour, has been fined for his participation in that affair.

OMAHA'S A. P. A. FIGHT.

Tomorrow May Be a Bloody Day In Her History.

RIVAL POLICE FORCES LIKELY.

A District Court Judge Ready to Issue Any Judicial Order Wanted by the A. P. A. Adherents—New Law to Go Into Effect Tomorrow.

OMAHA, July 31.—As the first day of August approaches, the day upon which the Churchill-Russell A. P. A. law goes into effect, the interest in police matters become intensified among all classes of citizens. Ever since the appointment of Chief of Police White by the present board of fire and police commissioners, and until last Sunday the opinion generally prevailed that an armed conflict was almost unavoidable, if two rival police and fire commissioners were set up.

The malcontents and police plotters have been in almost constant conference with the members of the radical element of the A. P. A., of whom Judge Scott is the head and Attorney Covell, partner of Churchill, the leading light. Nearly all of the policemen who were recently dismissed by the present board have been enrolled as a nucleus of the police force to be organized by the new board, and they boast that all are armed. As a part of the well-laid programme it has been announced that Judge Scott has not adjourned his section of the district court and will be on hand to issue any judicial order required for the plans of the new board.

It is said the plan is to appoint the commissioners under the terms of the Churchill-Russell law, at a late hour tonight, and have them ready to take possession of the affairs of the police early tomorrow morning. If they resist they are to be arrested. These arrests are to be followed by the arrest of Chief of Police White, and all of the officers of the force who are not in sympathy with them and who are not ready to do their biddings. Scott is to be on hand and issue all writs that might be necessary to aid in erecting the machinery of the new law.

Brutal Treatment of an Erring Woman.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 31.—Mrs. Hattie Covey, wife of Burt Covey, a resident of Jayville, on the Carthage and Adirondack railroad, eloped June 22 with John Kirch, superintendent of a sawmill, leaving one child. Kirch left a wife and four children. They went to Michigan, but becoming dissatisfied, Mrs. Covey returned home the other night. She was run out of town and on returning, a crowd stripped her of her clothing and bruised her so terribly that she may die.

May Pay $110,000 In Fines.

KEWANEE, Ill., July 31.—H. Clay Merritt, charged with illegally dealing in game, has been found guilty by Justice Fyfe and fined $23,000. Merritt took an appeal to the circuit court, but was obliged to furnish bonds in $100,000. Two more suits will be brought against Merritt, involving 2,700 quail and ducks, and if these cases also prove successful Merritt will have fines to pay in the aggregate of about $110,000.

Sues Chicago For $3,000,000.

CHICAGO, July 31.—Charles T. Stow has begun suit against the city of Chicago for $3,000,000. Stow claims that he was allowed a patent in 1874 on a method for paving streets with cedar blocks, and that the city of Chicago has used his method since then without paying any royalty. He figures that $3,000,000 is due him.

An Endeavor Delegate Missing.

BOSTON, July 31.—A most mysterious affair connected with the recent Christian Endeavor convention here has just come to light. Mrs. E. T. Gardiner of Arcadia, Neb., who came here as a delegate to the convention, has not yet returned to her home and husband and child, and the report of her death here is not supported by the records by any known facts.

A Business Man Disappears.

BUFFALO, July 31.—Charles T. Baker, a business man of Jackson, Mich., who arrived here with his wife about ten days ago, has mysteriously disappeared six days ago. Mrs. Baker has returned to her parents' home in Clinton, Ia., after telling the police that she is certain that her husband has not died. They have found no trace of him.

The Whole Company Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The production of the play entitled, "The Crime of a Century," which placed on the stage at the Alcazar theater, was stopped in the middle of the third act, on account of the court injunction. It was based on the Emanuel church murders. The company was sent to jail.

They May Fight In Mexico.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 31.—A private telegram has been received here from one of the officers of the Florida Athletic club, inquiring as to the feasibility of pulling off the Corbett-Fitzsimmons battle in Mexico, just across the border from Laredo or Eagle Pass, Mexico.

TRCOPS AT JACKSON'S HOLE.

Other Soldiers Pushing on, But Everything Is Quiet.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—A dispatch has been received at the war department, from army headquarters at Omaha, stating that the battalion of the Eighth infantry, composed of five companies, from Fort Russell, in charge of Major Bisbee, had left Market Lake for Marysville. They had 30 days' supplies for the entire command, which included the squadron of cavalry now on its way to Marysville.

The dispatch said further that General Coppinger had not been heard from. The cavalry has probably arrived at Marysville. Army officials estimate that the infantry can, under forced march, reach Marysville in six days. In view of the peaceable character of the reports from the scene of the troubles, such hurry, however, will not, in the opinion of the officials here, be necessary.

Cleveland Honors His Dead Servant.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The president's coachman, William Willis, has been buried with appropriate Masonic and religious funeral services. Many White House employees were present, and Sinclair, the White House steward, came here from Gray Gables to attend the funeral, by direction of the president and Mrs. Cleveland. A large wreath of white flowers and asparagus was sent to the church by the president in memory of his faithful servant.

A Youthful Firebug.

CHELSEA, Mass., July 31.—Henry G. Clark, 17 years old, was in the municipal court here charged with breaking and entering, but his case was continued in order to permit State Firemarshal Whitcomb to prefer more serious charges against him. By his own confession, last spring he set fires that caused a loss of more than $50,000. Clark has already served time for incendiarism.

Earthquake Shocks In Italy.

FLORENCE, July 31.—Slight shocks of earthquake have occurred here, which caused much alarm, in view of the city's recent terrifying experience. A serious damage, however, was done. In the district contiguous to the city, the shocks were more severe and caused more damage. At Comacini, the chimneys on some of the houses collapsed, causing much alarm.

United After 58 Years.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., July 31.—Mrs. James Rosier of this city and Mrs. John Miles, sisters who had not seen or heard of each other for 58 years, have met at Lake Maxinkuckee. They had lived only 40 miles apart for 42 years without knowing it, and their reunion was brought about by a casual mention of the name of one to the other.

May Succeed Minister Dunn.

MILWAUKEE, July 31.—It is reported here that Edward C. Wall, ex-chairman of the Democratic central committee of Wisconsin, will be appointed minister to Japan, to succeed Minister Dunn. It is said that both Senators Vilas and Mitchell are willing to endorse him, and that his friends are working in his behalf.

Race Riot In Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 31.—A riot is raging at Brookside, 14 miles west, between negroes and whites, over killing of a deputy sheriff by a negro. Four men are reported killed. Fifteen deputies have left for the scene.

SHOES AND DRY GOODS

Fought For Fun on the Diamond Last Night.

HOW THEY DID PLAY BALL

It Was Worth Double the Price of Admission to See the Wonders of that Encounter, and the Crowd Laughed Heartily at the Sport.

Game was called at 6:20 last evening, on the West End grounds, with a nice audience in attendance, including a number of fair ladies, attracted by the stories of the wonderful prowess of Willie Gass in the pitcher's box, and the statement that Stein's fielding was a sight well worth witnessing, while the rumor had become prevalent that Whitt could easily surpass the best efforts of Jack Glascock at short, in the palmiest days of that superbly brilliant player. Mr. Reark umpired yesterday's game and gave complete satisfaction. Wallace was strictly in the game in left field and made several nice catches, helping his side of the conflict very much.

For the first few innings, Stein fanned wind vehemently, scarcely approaching the vicinity of the ball. Someone in the crowd suggested that he "shove the yard stick at the thing," and he dropped to the idea thereafter, pushing the bat against the ball and reaching base safely, when the smile which spread over his handsome phiz illumined the entire ball ground and started the rumor in the city that there was a conflagration in the West End.

Dan Ogilvie was a power in the game for the calico venders, dilling chair superbly, while a nice two bagger on his part brought in two much-to-be-desired runs. His side partner, E. M. Crosser, was not playing; but he was cheering his side to the echo, and when Dan made his nice hit, you could hear Ed's smile all over the surrounding country. Ed's face would have secured him a position as first-class mourner, when the announcement was made, at the end of the fifth inning, that leather overtopped calico by 13 to 12.

Ed McIntosh did elegant work at second, and he played all over the surrounding territory. Larkins hit viciously at the sphere just as soon as it left the fist of the pitcher, and when some one suggested that he would do well to wait till the ball reached his neighborhood, he responded that he had played ball from his youth up and knew all about the game.

Allison pitched good ball for the yard sticks, and it was not his fault that they met defeat. In one of the innings Winn made a nice little base hit and then kept on running, paying no attention to the bases until he reached third, where a coacher caught and held him, until a passed ball permitted him to score. Messrs. Swaney, McClure, Bence, Dunlap and Pope are old hands at the game and did well by their teams, while Swartz and Haynes were in the swim, and Harrison's south pawed batting aided shoes materially. Williamson asserts that his base running was all that saved his team from defeat, as he took desperate chances whenever he reached first.

There were but five innings played, on account of the lateness of the hour. Shoes were last at bat. The game was a tie, 12 to 12, and two men out, when Haynes came to the bat, and the leather pounders vehemently urged him to hit her out. He was equal to the occasion and sent a hot fly to Stein in right field. The fielder took a good look at the ball as it sped swiftly in his direction, dodged hither and thither in order to get out of its way, but it hunted him up in the most vicious manner and finally smote him a terrible blow upon the top of his handsome head, and then continued on its way rejoicing, while two runners galloped over the home plate and the victory was won.

The dry goods men dispute the game, and want another evening next week. They think they can beat the boots of the shoe men, and propose to give them a harder tussle for victory than they had yesterday.

OPENED TONIGHT.

Club Room is Furnished—Rowe Won the Race.

The quarters of the C. C. C. C. will be formally opened in the Burton building this evening. The furniture was added today, and wheelmen are now assured comfortable quarters. Arrangements will be made tonight for the road race, and all members are expected present. The first prize will be a handsome gold watch presented to the winner by the club, and the other prizes will be of sufficient value to attract all the scorchers in the club.

Rowe won the road race last night by half a wheel, the finish being witnessed by a large crowd of admiring people. Bobby Jewell, the referee, gave the word, and in company with a crowd of wheelmen followed the youngsters to town. Davidson took the lead, and kept it until Third street on Broadway was reached when the contestants began to push up the hill. A great crowd cheered them on, and when they mounted at Fourth street there were prospects of a tight finish. Davidson caught him at the Sixth street corner, but could not close the gap, and Rowe won the race and the medal, the time being 10 minutes.

Dick Meredith is mentioned as the probable winner of the race from Wellsville and Heber Davidson has many friends who think he can win the Dry Run race.

THE RACING FEVER.

The City Has It Just Now and Many Contests Are Booked.

The city has a severe attack of the racing fever, and contests can be seen everywhere. The bicycle leads, but foot races are also a favorite, while the horsemen, not to be outdone, have arranged for a few trials of speed on the East End track next Saturday.

A foot race of interest took place in the Midway this afternoon, several hundred people witnessing the event. James Baltimore and James Brown were the contestants and the prize was a purse of $5. Baltimore fell and was out of the race, but he trotted over the scratch while Brown dashed ahead and won the race. It was an amusing affair, and pleased the crowd. Over $50 in wagers was counted in the alley after the race.

DECIDING THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

No More Base Ball Until the Best Team is Known.

There will be no more base ball games in this city until a week from Saturday when the Young Men's Christian association and Shamrock teams will again battle for supremacy. The Young Men's Christian association boys have decided that it would not pay to bring clubs here until the question of the local championship is settled, as the public want to see the best team the city can turn out.

Will Give a Festival.

The East End base ball club will give a festival in Chambers hall on Saturday evening. A large crowd is expected from the city proper.

On the Potomac.

The following gentleman will leave tomorrow morning for a three weeks' outing on the Potomac river:

Frank George, W. J. McKinney, J. W. Pickall, Thos. Lloyd, Alex. McGraw, Wm. Thomas, A. G. Minehart, H. E. Grosshans, J. W. Wilson, C. S. McKee, A. W. Scott and C. M. Dix. They have a complete camping outfit, and expect to spend the time fishing. Some of them have camped before, and their friends are expecting some great stories when they get home.

The People Are Well.

Local physicians say that there is little sickness throughout the city and one or two doctors complain that their calls are fewer than in months. Office practice is also duller than usual.

Entertained the Preachers.

E. D. Moore and wife entertained Doctor Marshall, Doctor Lee and Reverends Cooper and Lowry, with their wives, at dinner yesterday. The gathering was a very pleasant one.

Will Meet Tonight.

The general committee and sub-committees of Trades' council meet tonight for the purpose of completing preparations for Labor Day. A full attendance is desired.

Will See the Races.

A number of East Liverpool sports will go to Cleveland on the midnight train to see the races tomorrow and Friday, while others will wait until the morning train.

Typhoid Fever.

The little daughter of James Skiles, residing near the old cemetery, is ill with typhoid fever. So far as is known it is the only case of the disease in the city.

Carries a Cane.

Harold Williamson walks with a cane because of an accident received while playing ball yesterday afternoon. The injury is but temporary.

The girl decorators of the Dresden pottery and their friends will picnic tomorrow afternoon and evening at Rock Spring.
